

Gathering the Givers of the Retreat in Daily Life Resources Mentioned in the Chat

18th and 9th Annotation Resources

Draw Me Into Your Friendship: A Literal Translation and a Contemporary Reading of the Spiritual Exercises (Jesuit Sources)

The Ignatian Adventure: Experiencing the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius in Daily Life by: Kevin O'Brien, SJ (Loyola Press)

Choosing Christ in the World: A Handbook for Directing the Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius Loyola According to Annotations Eighteen and Nineteen (Jesuit Sources)

The Spiritual Exercises Reclaimed [Anniversary Edition] Uncovering Liberating Possibilities for Women by Elizabeth Liebert & Annemarie Paulin-Campbell (Paulist Press)

Understanding the Spiritual Exercises by Michael Ivens, SJ (Gracewing)

Like the Lightning: The Dynamics of the Ignatian Exercises by David Fleming, SJ (Jesuit Sources)

Inner Compass An Invitation to Ignatian Spirituality by Margaret Silf (Loyola Press)

Hearts on Fire Praying with Jesuits by Michael Harter, SJ (Loyola Press)

The First Spiritual Exercises Four Guided Retreats by Michael Hansen, S.J. (Ave Maria Press)

Finding Christ in the World : A Twelve Week Ignatian Retreat in Everyday Life by Joseph Tetlow, SJ and Carol Atwell Ackels (Jesuit Sources)

Moment by Moment A Retreat in Everyday Life by Carol Ann Smith, S.H.C.J. and Eugene Merz, S.J. (Ave Maria Press)

William O'Malley SJ's book "The Fifth Week" has been helpful for follow-up

Timothy Gallagher's book, "Introduction to Ignatian Prayer" is helpful for follow-up

The Gift of Spiritual Intimacy by Monty Williams to be a tremendous resource.

Putting on the Virtue of Christ Gerald Fagin SJ

Discovering your personal Vocation, Herbert Alphonso SJ

On Earth as it is in Heaven by Josephine Lombardi.

May I have this Dance by Joyce Rupp

Dynamics of the Spiritual Exercises by Howard Gray, SJ

<https://president.georgetown.edu/initiatives/spiritual-exercises/>

Context of healing prayer: article by myself, Penelope Olive, Models for Healing Prayer in Spiritual Direction - The Healing Ministry of Jesus; the Passion of Christ; the Consecration - The Way Journal January 2015

Only Your Love and Your Grace: On Directing the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola by Robert Fabing, SJ

A Friendship Like No Other: Experiencing God's Amazing Embrace by William A. Barry

The New Spiritual Exercises In the Spirit of Pierre Teilhard de Chardin; Louis Savary

CLC (Christian Life Community) is a seamless, blessed movement for those who've made the SE for on-going faith sharing, integrating the SE as 5th Week into the rest of their lives as contemplative men and women on mission in the world. If any one is interested to explore starting new CLCs in your area, please be in touch via the national website clc-usa.com or happy to have more conversation: teacher41@aol.com

<https://feelingswheel.com/>

Resources for Supervision

Lori Wilson: I'm a supervisor as well, connected with the MURPHY CENTER for Ignatian Spiritual direction. My email is lori.jean.wilson@gmail.com.

Laura Pasquale, lep@scforyou.com

Our AASEA Group (Atlantic Association of Spiritual Exercises Apostolate), Saint John, New Brunswick, Canada build in peer supervision at all of our local meetings. It is a non-negotiable for us.

I also am offering supervision for the Exercises. Contact - Paul Burgmayer pburgmayer@gmail.com

Alice Nahas: Individual and group supervision: purplehabit.com, anahas@me.com.

Christian Life Community provides Guide Training, Communities, Peer Supervision for CLC members in our Bridges Program (19th Annot) and with the Online Program offered in several language (also 19th Annotation) clc-usa.com is national website; cvx-clc.net is world website; you can also contact me Teacher41@aol.com for further conversation

Multi-Cultural Resources

La Universidad de Comillas has many books in Spanish for Salterae Publishers

Jesuits in Pune, India: <https://www.punejesuit.org/>

Francis X. Clooney, SJ, is good on Hinduism

I am an area coordinator with Ignatian Spirituality Project retreats. I facilitate the ISP weekend retreats and I and others bring Ignatian Spirituality reflections to shelters and one-on-one. I'd be happy to tell you my experiences. sherryalexander@outlook.com More info on ISP at Home - Ignatian Spirituality Project \(ispretreats.org\))

OIS (Ministerio Hispano Ignaciano) is partnering with "Casa Kino" from San Diego (www.casakino.org). OIS' Hispanic Ministry Team has many resources that could be helpful: www.MinisterioHispanoIgnaciano.org Feel free to contact them.

Carlos Cabarrús, sj, was a Novice Master for the Jesuits for many years. He accompanied young men who had significant traumas from the realities of Central America in the 80s/90s. He developed an approach to accompaniment in a book. Here is a page with his books <https://www.edescler.com/autor/carlos-rafael-cabarrus>

Various papers about Ignatian Spirituality in Spanish
<https://www.cristianismeijusticia.net/es/eides>

Patrick Saint-Jean (young, Haitian Jesuit): The Crucible of Racism: Ignatian Spirituality and the Power of Hope. Within his own context, he moves through the major themes of all four weeks of the Exercises. He has several great books that apply.

Anti-Racism Sodality of the Midwest Province has developed terrific resources for their annual retreat: The God of Us All: Praying with Black and Ignatian Spirituality.

A book by Trevor Hudson "Seeking God: Finding Another Kind of Life with St. Ignatius and Dallas Willard" is a great perspective from a Methodist minister for me as a Catholic working with ecumenical groups.

Loyola House in Guelph Canada has several programs and was the home of John Veltri and John English. <https://ignatiusguelph.ca/>

Guidelines and Reflective Process Resources for Givers of the Spiritual Exercises

By Every Means Possible, Fr. General Arturo Sosa, SJ, Superior General, invites us to offer the Spiritual Exercises "in as many ways as possible." This document presents guidelines for those in the ministry of the Spiritual Exercises., including five characteristics of those who give the Spiritual Exercises. <https://www.jesuitsmidwest.org/the-gift-of-the-spiritual-exercises/>

Mission Examen

The Mission Examen is a suggested process designed to help claim and foster the specific charism of your retreat ministry. <https://www.jesuitsmidwest.org/the-gift-of-the-spiritual-exercises/>

Resources for Training to Become a Giver of the Spiritual Exercises

St. Raphaela Center: An Online Practicum in Giving the 19th Annotation for spiritual directors who have completed a spiritual direction formation program. <https://www.straphaelacenter.org/spiritual-director-formation/>

Boston College Intensive on the 19th Annotation, a week-long summer intensive offered through the School of Theology and Ministry for spiritual directors in order to better accompany others through the Spiritual Exercises, particularly in the 19th Annotation format. <https://www.bc.edu/bc-web/schools/stm/academics/summer-at-stm/19thAnnotationIntensive.html>

The Loyola Ignatian Formation Experience (LIFE), for individuals who have made the Spiritual Exercises and have discerned a call to the ministry of giving them. tbrown@loyola.edu

The Archdiocese of New Orleans offers a three session program to give the Exercises. You must be a Spiritual Director and have gone through the Exercises in order to be in the program, archspirctr@arch-no.org

Multi year training at The Wickham Centre of the Ignatian Spirituality Centre of Montreal. Icsm-iscm.org - in English and/or French

Contact Information for Ignatian Spiritual Exercises of Worcester

Worcester RIDL website: www.IgnatianSpiritualExercisesWorcester.com
Dick Kirk at dick.kirk@gmail.com or WorcSpEx19@gmail.com support website for the Worcester RIDL program: findinggodindailylife.com

Contact information for 19th annotation at Boston College Center for Ignatian Spirituality and St. Ignatius of Loyola Parish

<https://www.bc.edu/bc-web/offices/mission-ministry/sites/center-for-ignatian-spirituality/prayer/19th-annotation.html>

<https://www.stignatiuschestnuthill.org/ignatian-spirituality>